

THE CIVIL WAR IN FRANCE

THE SITUATION IN PARIS SAID TO BE STILL UNCHANGED.

THE Life of the Archbishop of Paris Threatened Foreign Powers sympathizing with the Verrillais, and the Archbishop of Paris threatened the Verrillais. The Verrillais Government in London, April 11.—The Verrillais are completely masters of the situation at Neuilly, but persuade the inhabitants as far as possible from bombarding the Fort of Mont Valérien is consequently very free. There was sharp fighting yesterday in the Bois de Boulogne. A manifesto of the "League for the Defence of the Rights of Paris" demands communal liberties, and that Paris shall be guarded by the National Guards only, and that the Verrillais shall be driven out of the Bois du Boulogne from congestion of the brain.

THE ARCHBISHOP OF PARIS THREATENED. The village of Châtillon is occupied by 15,000 insurgents, who have made a sortie against the place in which they were repulsed. The reports are that M. de Neuilly is contradicted. The insurgents ask for one million of francs, and the Church for one million of francs, and avow that they will kill the Archbishop of Paris if it is not paid.

FOREIGN POWERS SYMPATHIZING WITH VERRILLAIS. Paris, 11th April.—The National Assembly said that all the powers and the Verrillais are in opposition with the Government of Versailles as the only legitimate Government of France. He also stated that the German Administrator in France, Gen. Fabrice, had declined the overtures made

THE ARMY LOYAL.

An announcement was made in the Assembly by one of the members of the Government confirming some of the previous statements as to the general reestablishment of order in the country, and it was added, with regard to Paris, that the Government had the most implicit reliance upon the courage and constancy of the Parisians.

M. Thiers has issued a circular to Prefects for the information of the people of France, in which he says: "The status of Paris is unaltered. The insurgents have returned to Asnières. Our troops have been ordered to bring them back. Neutrality. Their conduct has been admirable. The Government has no intention of insurrection in Toulouse, but it has been suppressed. The disarmament of the Nationals at Marseilles proceeds. Outside the capital all is tranquillity. The Government is satisfied that the citizens have given up their confidence."

THE INSURGENTS REPULSED.

A despatch from Versailles, April 10, says: "Yesterday Forte Vaux and Lassy were shelled. The insurgents at Chantilly twice attacked our troops and were repulsed."

at the battle of Neuilly took place to-day, and was attended by immense crowds of the people. The official journal guardedly denies that the National Assembly is in favor of a kingdom as the power of the Emperor of Germany is so great that Napoleonism and Communism must perish."

IRON-CLAD CARS ON A RAILWAY.

PARIS, APRIL 11.—The Communal authorities have re-voiced their precautions against the departure of persons from the city without passports. Donations of iron-clad cars have been received from the Government by the Nationals, and the effective operation of the iron-clad cars on the Versailles and St. Germain Railway. Affairs at the Porte Maillot have been quiet since the explosion of the cannonade on the day of the 10th. They have also erected additional batteries around the otherwise strengthened defences around the city.

It is said that Herr von Fabrice has informed the Government at Versailles that the Paris Commune has notified him of its determination to stop traffic on the Versailles Railway.

Gen. Lemaître commands the forces around Meudon, Val d'Or, and Gen. Cluseret those on the plain of St. Germain.

THE FIGHTING UNREWED.
The cannonade and musketry firing was renewed this morning at Paris-Maillot. Neully, the Port-Jes Termes, and in the Bois de Boulogne. A detachment has gone to Versailles for the purpose of imposing measures of pacification. They are instructed to insist on the maintenance of the Republic and to reinforce the municipal franchises, and to demand that the Nationalists shall alone guard Paris; and that they reject these terms, to inquire what conditions the Versailles Government will propose.

BERLIN, April 11.—The Prussian Court Gazette says: "The British Government is endeavoring to persuade us to intervene for the restoration of order in Paris."

BERLIN, April 11.—The total number of Prussian soldiers sent home from Switzerland is 54,064.

LYNCHING IN VIRGINIA.

The Hanging of Thomas Hodges, Horse Thief and Murderer.
STANFORD, April 11.—Thomas Hodges, desperado and horse thief, who shot and fatally wounded Whitlock last Friday night, was taken from jail in this place about 1 o'clock this morning and hanged by a mob at a place about a mile and a half from town. The jailer and ex-Sheriff McCutch were both in the jail and refused to surrender the key to the mob, who were armed with revolvers and took Hodges out. The lynchers, who were disguised, were strangers to the officers. Hodges shot and killed four men in this neighborhood
